The Citizen Academy consists of two days of information-packed sessions to acquaint you with the operations of the San Diego County Sheriff's Department. One of the major principles of Community Oriented Policing is the empowerment of our community's citizens. Those who attend the program will have a better understanding of law enforcement and will become part of the strong partnership necessary in making our community a great place to live.

Topics Include:

SWAT (S. E. D.)
Jail Tour
Crime Scene Investigations
Crime Prevention and more!

Attend both class sessions and receive an Official Graduation Certificate

All applicants must be at least 18 years of age and will undergo a background check prior to acceptance into the Citizen Academy.
